Arriving at Windsor by 12.30pm we get a great view of the castle from the Thames. Free time to get lunch or bring a picnic before heading off to the Theatre Royal found in the shadow of the castle. We have secured seats in the stalls to see The Marquise at 2.30pm. Leaving Windsor at 5.15pm.

There are steps to get on and off the boat, a walk up to the hill from the river and a long day so please consider this when making your booking.

Noël Coward's witty romantic comedy gets a vibrant 1930s twist!

When a widowed Count tries to marry off his daughter to the son of his best friend, it seems like a perfectly sensible plan. But with both young lovers secretly pining for others, their entangled affections cause chaos.

Just as their scheme to break free begins, the Countess Raoul's former lover, the spirited Marquise Eloise de Kestournal, bursts back into their lives. Wielding her wit and charm, she turns their carefully laid plans upside down, reminding everyone that love truly can conquer all. This is a sparkling and sophisticated tale of old secrets, impulsive passion, and eternal youth.
